“National Energy Marketers... Will This Segment Survive?”

Presenters:

Moderator – Chris Helms, President/CEO, CMS Panhandle
Kevin Howell, Dominion Training Clearinghouse
Don Sinclair, The Ceritas Group
Everett Gibbs, Protiviti

Target Audience: Gas Supply, Marketing, and Business Development departments.

Program Description:

Recent scandals in the business sector have created some challenges for companies engaged in energy trading. The SEC & FERC are both looking to create more rules & regulations for companies trading in natural gas.

Hear major marketers discuss the challenges they face and what they are doing to overcome them. Hear regulators discuss pending regulations and what they expect form marketing companies in 2003

Topics to be discussed include:

- What does FERC really want in marketing?
- Standard market design.
- How is this segment going to grow or survive?
- Who are the current major players? Who will they be in 2005?
