

LIVE BROADCAST

Thursday, May 19, 2005

9:30 – 10:30 AM ET / 8:30 – 9:30 AM CT/ 7:30 – 8:30 AM PT

“No Longer a ‘Pick & Shovel Business”
Emerging Issues/Equipment for Field Employees

Presenters:

Rand LaVonn, Atmos Energy (moderator)
Don Faircloth/Allen Rounds, SCANA
Wayne Turner/Roger Nash, Atmos Energy
Paul Wehnert, Heath Consultants, Inc.
Dave Vetter, Gas Technology Institute (GTI)

Target Audience: Employees at all levels

Program Overview:

Current and future technology, equipment and customer expectations will impact how service is delivered. A panel of experts will highlight what leading gas companies are doing to deliver excellent service, improve the safety of operations and hold down costs.

Participants will be briefed on the newest technology:

- Remote Methane Leak Detector – Heath Consultants
- Micro Excavation Device – Gas Technology Institute
- Automated Meter Reading - SCANA
- Segway Scooter – Atmos Energy

To register for this live satellite broadcast, contact:
Nadine Fred, 972-620-4015 for nfred@ctn-energy.org